

Rejoice

(based on the recording by Dustin Kensrue)

Words and Music by
Dustin Kensrue and Stuart Townend

INTRO

C

Csus

C

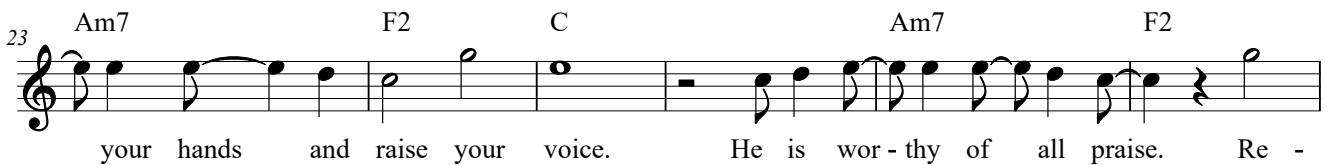

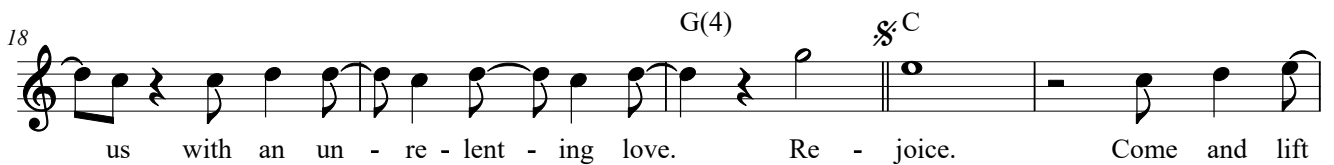

♩=163

VERSE 1

CHORUS 1

VERSE 2

36 C F2

2. We are chil - dren of the prom - ise, the be - lov - ed of the Lord, won with ev -

41 C F2

- er - last - ing kind - ness, bought with sac - ri - fi - cial blood. Bring - ing re -

45 Am7 C/G F2

- con - cil - i - a - tion to a world that longs to know the af - fec - tions of a fa -

VERSE 3

50 G(4) Coda C

D.S. al Coda $\emptyset$

- ther who will nev - er let them go. Re 3. All our sick - ness, all our sor -

55 Csus C

- rows, Je - sus car - ried up the hill. He has walked this path be - fore

59 Csus Am7

us; He is walk - ing with us still. Turn - ing trag - e - dy to tri - umph, turn - ing a -

64 G(4) F2

- go - ny to praise, there is bless - ing in the bat - tle, so take heart and stand a - mazed.

CHORUS 2

69 C/E F2 C/E

Re - joice. When you cry to him he hears your voice.

75 F2 Am7 F2

He will wipe a - way your tears. Re - joice. In the midst of suf - fer-ing

CHORUS 1

81 Am7 G(4) C Am7

he will help you sing. Re - joice. Come and lift your hands and

87 F2 C Am7 F2 Am7

raise your voice. He is wor - thy of all praise. Re - joice. Sing the mer -

94 F2 Am7 G(4) C

- cies of your king and with trem - bl - ing, re - joice.